Dear Professor Cole,

Thank you for your May 18 letter regarding the SEALL conference in Oxford. I must admit that I was surprised by your letter. Your presentation was enjoyed by many librarians at the conference, but was too intellectual and philosophical for others. Several librarians commented to me later that they enjoyed the presentation. I really appreciate your letter and also apologize for not providing more and better information to you about the group.

I forwarded a copy of your letter to Wes Cochran of the University of Mississippi (President of the Chapter). You should hear from him shortly.

Again, thank you for attending & best wishes for the future.

Sincerely,

Timothy L. Cogges

P.S.

UNC-CH has added a seminar for the Fall Semester on law and literature. One of our top professors will teach it.
