Dear Ed:

Thanks for the news on the money from the Atlanta meeting. I am pleased to hear this because we will need to spend some on speakers for the Lake Buena Vista meeting. I was concerned that we would not have sufficient funds.

I was not particularly impressed with the plaques which Bill Younger sent to me. I plan to look around before we go ahead with those. When I find a suitable plaque, I'll let you know or if I find nothing better, we can get the ones Bill suggested.

Sincerely yours,

Donald G. Ziegenfuss
