Dear Nancy:

Enclosed is a copy of Mary Green's letter which is self-explanatory. Hope you can straighten this out for her. She should be the only one involved as we returned one other and Pearl had not sent in a check.

Hope the money came out fairly accurately and that you had funds left over for the scholarship account. Haven't heard from you, so I know you are busy, but just want to make sure Dr. Harrer's check doesn't go astray as he paid for his tickets personally.

I probably will be in touch with you again before June but, if not, see you then. Our reservation was confirmed and I should arrive at noon so hope we don't run into hotel problems similar to Atlanta.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Betty W. Taylor
