Dear Ms. Billings:

Despite my awkward beginning on Friday, I'm certain that the program was well received, and did, in fact, mesh together in fine fashion.

I do want to express my appreciation to you and Ms. Bourget for seeing that all the necessary auditorium arrangements were just as requested and in good order. The facilities and hotel accomodations were most satisfactory.

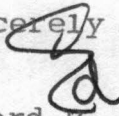

The following are my travel expenses directly connected with the meeting of the Southeastern Association of Law Libraries and Atlanta Chapter, American Association of Law Libraries, at Buena Vista, Florida, February 11-12, 1983:

Mileage, Gainesville to/from Lake Buena Vista (250 @ .20)	$50.00
Lunch, en route, Feb. 11th	3.25
Dinner, Feb. 11th	15.10
Lunch, Feb. 12th	7.20
State hotel tax on room	4.34
Xeror reproductions of bibliography (70-copies)	7.22
	$87.11

These expenses are in addition to the honorarium.

I trust that you had a pleasant return trip to New Orleans. I'm sorry that Florida did not offer more of its normally comfortable weather.

Sincerely yours,

Edward R. Gilbert
