Mr. William C. Younger
Alabama Supreme Court Library
Judicial Building - Capitol
Montgomery, Alabama 36104

Dear Mr. Younger:

Thank you for your letter of the 15th. Unfortunately, I am unable to report any good news about Mrs. Von Allmen. She continues to be in a coma and apparently the doctor is unable to perform surgery while she is in this condition. We will be sure to keep you posted.

I am happy to hear that the Atlanta conference was such a success. I know it was a good experience for all who attended.

Your offer to tend to any matters relating to the Southeastern Chapter prompted me to review some of the accumulated correspondence. In so doing I discovered the enclosed memo from the AALL concerning annual reports. I would imagine that at the time this memo was received, we had no idea that Mrs. Von Allmen's condition would be as critical as it has become. Therefore, I sincerely hope it will not be too late for you to respond to this request from Miss Russo.

Thank you for all the help you've given me with the SE Chapter business.

Yours truly,

Linda Wallbaum

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ANNUAL REPORTS 1973/1974

May 1, 1974 is the deadline for submission of annual reports of committees, chapters and representatives of AALL.

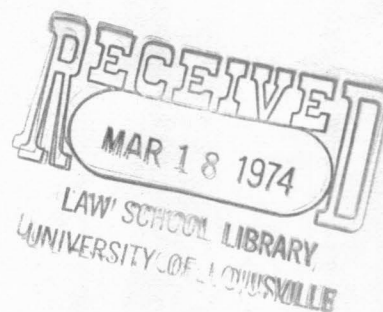

By that date, the report, in form suitable for photo reproduction without re-typing, is to be in the hands of Miss Antonette Russo, Administrative Secretary, 53 West Jackson Boulevard, Room 1201, Chicago, Illinois, 60604.

Please use paper 8 1/2 x 11" DOUBLE-SPACED, on only one side of the page, without institutional letterhead.

The following copies are required:

- (1) Original copy to Miss Russo.
- (2) An additional copy to Miss Russo.
- (3) A copy to President Erwin Surrency, Charles Klein Law Library, Temple University, 1715 Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 19122.
- (4) A copy to Secretary Patricia B. Piper, University of California, Law Library, Davis, California, 95616.
- (5) A copy to your liaison officer, listed at 66 Law Library Journal, 378 (omit if duplicated (3) or (4)).
- (6) A copy for your files.

The report to be printed in the Law Library Journal will be that submitted to Miss Russo, unless that report exceeds 300 words. If your report must exceed that word limit, submit an edited report to Mr. Connie E. Bolden, Editor of the Law Library Journal, so that he will not have to edit it for length himself.

SOUTHEASTERN CHAPTER

The following officers served the Chapter during the 1973-74 year:

President: Pearl W. Von Allmen
Vice-President/President Elect: William C. Younger
Secretary/Treasurer: Nancy Jo Kitchen

The Southeastern Chapter held a breakfast meeting at the annual A.A.L.L. meeting in Seattle, Washington on July 3, 1973. Reports were received on Chapter projects and plans were discussed for the coming year. The Chapter decided to hold an Institute on Law Library Administration in Atlanta in April of 1974.

The Chapter held its annual meeting on August 19, 1973 at Marco Island, Florida, in conjunction with the Southeastern Chapter of A.A.L.S. We were honored to have as our luncheon speaker, Erwin C. Surrency, President of A.A.L.L. The afternoon program consisted of a panel and presentation of the proposed Information Dynamics Corporation bibliographic searching system including Harvard cataloging input. Many honored guests and members attended this session. IDC decided to use the Southeastern Chapter area as a test area for its services.

The Southeastern Chapter held its Second Annual Institute, April 5 and 6, 1974, in Atlanta, Georgia. Betty Taylor and Lamar Woodard served as Co-Directors. The program was on law library administration and was well attended. Miss Jane Hammond, nominee for President-Elect of A.A.L.L., and other distinguished guests were there. The institute was a great success.

A Third Annual Institute is being planned for 1975 in Atlanta. The Southwestern Chapter has invited the Southeastern Chapter to consider a joint meeting with them, and it is anticipated that our Fourth Annual Institute will be held in New Orleans in 1976 as a joint meeting with the Southwestern Chapter.

Our President, Pearl W. Von Allmen is seriously ill at this time. It is hoped that she has a complete recovery.

William C. Younger
Vice-President/President Elect
