Dear Miss Oliver:

Congratulations on your election as President of the Southeastern Chapter, Association of American Law Libraries. I know that you will set a pattern which will be most difficult for your successors to follow.

I have just received the initial issue of the Southeastern Chapter, Association of American Law Libraries Newsletter. I think that this is an admirable project, but I hope that you will forgive me if I do not volunteer to edit an issue in the near future. We have just started issuing our own newsletter here for the benefit of our own faculty and law students. It is primarily serving the purpose of providing a list of new acquisitions. Whatever its purpose, with our lack of personnel it is really time consuming.

I do want to avail myself of the sage advice on "Ephemeral Materials in the Law Library." Please send me a copy of the remarks made by you and Miss Long. Many thanks for this kindness.

Congratulations again on your election and also on the first issue of the Newsletter.

With best wishes, I remain

Cordially yours,

Talbert B. Fowler, Jr.
