Dear Mary:

At the Washington meeting, Leah Chanin suggested that I might like to attend the South Eastern Chapter meeting the third week in August.

Within the past few days, we were also delighted to receive a letter from Pearl Von Allmen as Secretary of the Chapter also extending an invitation, and suggesting we contact you for further information. Would you kindly send anything you have on the meeting on to us. Unless something extenuating turns up we will be very happy to attend.

I understand the meeting will be held at the Holiday Inn in Nashville. Is there more than one in Nashville, as I will attend to a reservation without delay on hearing from you.

For quite a few years I was a member of the Up-State New York Chapter, and attended most of their meetings. At this time I would like to request membership in the South Eastern Chapter, now that we are permanently settled in the State of Florida.

A copy of this letter is being sent to Sarah Levarette and Pearl Von Allmen for their information relative to my request for membership.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely

WJG/ms
