Miss Ruth Corry, Secretary
Southeastern Chapter
Georgia State Library
Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Miss Corry:

Now is the time for all good chapters to make a report to the Chairman of the Committee on Chapters. As you probably know last year the Executive Board voted that chapters are to send their annual reports to the Chairman of the Committee on Chapters, who will then analyze and combine them into one report. As yet I do not have complete information on the deadline for filing of reports with the secretary but I believe that the final date will be no later than the 15th of April. In view of the fact that the Chairman on Chapters must file a report after he has received the chapter reports I think it would be extremely kind of you to forward your report to him no later than April 1. The Chairman is Mr. William D. Murphy of Kirkland, Fleming, Green, Martin & Ellis - Prudential Building, 130 East Randolph Drive, Chicago 1, Illinois. Please send a copy to me also so that I may include it in the chapter file of the Association. ✓

I should also like to remind you that chapters who wish a refund for members of their group who are also members of the American Association of Law Libraries must submit the names of such persons to the Treasurer before the 1st of May. Such refunds are given only for "active" members of the Association, not for "associate" members. The term active applies to their status in the Association not in the chapter. ✓

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

Doris R. Fenneberg
