Honorable William C. Younger
Librarian
Supreme Court and State Law Library
Judicial Building - Capitol

Dear Bill:

Thank you for visiting with us and for the bits of wisdom imparted. The next time you are here, please plan to allow us enough time to bend an elbow or take you to lunch, etc.

The enclosure came to me from a mighty nice gal. I am sure you'll agree when you first meet her.

Take care, friend, and let me hear from you from time to time.

Sincerely,

Donn

Dear Mr. Odom,

Back on Friday, September 20th, you gave me very helpful and constructive advice regarding the responsibilities of the law librarian and suggested that when I had settled down to my new job, to drop you a line. I am happy to report that I am delighted with my job and the very nice folks here at the Court in Nashville.

Although I have not yet made contact with the Southeastern Chapter of the AALL, our library does have corporate membership and receives its publications and announcements. I would certainly like to have the address of the Chapter President so that I might apply for personal membership.

When I eventually meet Rick Surles of the University of Tennessee Law Library, I will be sure to mention your name and say that you spoke very highly of him and his AALL presentation speech.

Once again, thank you for giving me such a helpful orientation.

Yours sincerely,

Carolyn Gray

Mrs. John (Carolyn) Gray
