Dear Ed,

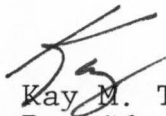

I enjoyed seeing you in Nashville and I think the meeting went very well. I am sorry you will not be in San Diego but I know you're excited about the new baby.

Unless you have already done so, I will arrange for a gavel for Ed Schroeder. Also, I need to forward the minutes of the Chapter's discussion of the Issues on the Future of A.A.L.L. You can either prepare them or if you are pressed for time, send me your notes and I will have them typed up. Finally, I am sending a letter requesting chapter information which I will let you respond to.

Please give me a call about the gavel and about the Special Issues minutes. I assume you will also get in touch with your successor about their beginning their responsibilities at the San Diego Meeting.

Thanks for all your help.

Sincerely,

Kay M. Todd
President
