Dear Miss Fitzpatrick:

The current Southeastern Chapter officers are listed above on this letterhead. Our officers are elected in May every other year in the even numbered years and serve for two years. Normally, our officers take office at the end of our annual meeting in August; but, this year they took office in June at the St. Paul meeting due to the disability of our outgoing president (Mrs. Pearl W. Von Allmen).

The officers as listed above were elected to serve until after our annual meeting in August of 1976.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger
President
