Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries, Inc.

July 18, 1994

Erwin C. Surrency
c/o University of Georgia
Law Library
Athens, GA 30602-6018

Dear Erwin,

It is my great pleasure to formally announce the unanimous vote of the membership attending the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries awarding Life Membership status to you. Everyone joins me in wishing you the best and congratulating you on your retirement and the award of Life Member status in SEAALL. As presented by Alva T. Stone in her nominating communication, your record of service to the Chapter and profession demands nothing less.

June 1, 1994

A distinguished member of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries, Erwin C. Surrency, is retiring from law librarianship this summer, and I would like to propose that he be elected to life membership in SEAALL.

Professor Surrency is completing 44 years of service in law libraries, including the last 15 years as director of the Law School Library at University of Georgia. In 1973/74 he was president of the American Association of Law Libraries. He has also served as Secretary/Treasurer of the Southeastern Chapter, and has been a regular attendee at SEAALL annual meetings.

A scholar of American legal history and law publishing, Prof. Surrency has had several books and articles published, and he plans to continue his research and publishing in his "leisure" years. I sincerely hope that SEAALL members will endorse the life membership status for Erwin, to encourage him to stay active in SEAALL, as well!

Sincerely yours,
Alva T. Stone

We hope we have the pleasure of your company and advice at SEAALL meetings for many years to come. Congratulations on a stellar career and best wishes for a long and full retirement.

Best Regards,

Pam Williams
President, SEALL 1993-94
