Dear Betty:

Thank-you so much for volunteering to help with the Mentoring Project at the Annual Meeting. That activity is under the coordination of the Membership Committee and I have conveyed your willingness to serve to Paula Tejada.

This year's Conference should be very exciting on both the program and social scenes. Your expert help in making our newer members feel welcome, needed and less confused is appreciated by all of us working toward making this an enjoyable and valuable event.

I hope your return to work was not overwhelming - except with good wishes! I'm really pleased that you're able to find some time to work with us.

Sincerely,

Pam Williams
