Dear LaMar:

I have now submitted the data for the printed program for the AALL program you are chairing. The information as submitted appears below.

"Certification for Law Librarians"

Chairperson: LaMar Woodard

Participants: LaMar Woodard, Law Librarian
Stetson University

Bill Younger, Marshall and Librarian
Supreme Court and State Law Library of Alabama

Abstract: The history and progress of the AALL Certification Program will be discussed along with suggested changes in the certification requirements.

Should changes be necessary, please notify me immediately.

Below are the equipment needs I have submitted for your program. Should you wish to make any revisions, please do as soon as possible.

Number of program participants: 2 speakers

Format: Panel

Equipment/Furniture: Microphone, lectern, table with 2 chairs

I am really getting excited about the overall program and I trust you are beginning to prepare for your program in earnest. If I do not hear from you within the next 7-10 days, I'll assume all the information contained herein is correct.

At the meeting in Rochester, you may want to take the speakers for your program out to lunch or dinner. You may do this at AALL expense. Please keep the cost reasonable, however. Submit the bill to me following the meeting and I will see that you are reimbursed.

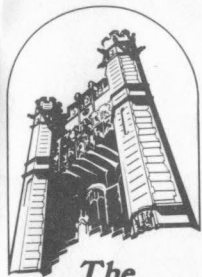

Thank you for your hard work and cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Laura N. Gasaway
