Dear Ms. O'Dell:

It was good to receive your letter of March 31, 1975 concerning your membership in the American Association of Law Libraries and its Southeastern Chapter. As you know, I had previously written to you at the request of the Membership Chairman of the AALL inviting you to become a member of the AALL. This was done because he had checked the membership list of the Southeastern Chapter against the membership list of the AALL and had determined (maybe incorrectly) that you were a member of the Southeastern Chapter and were not a member of AALL.

My checking leads me to believe that the Membership Chairman of AALL was correct. You do appear on the membership list of the Southeastern Chapter and your name does not appear in the latest directory of AALL. Maybe I can help straighten out your thinking. The dues of the Southeastern Chapter are $5 annually and you pay them to our current Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Nancy Jo Kitchen at Florida State University Law Library, Tallahassee, Florida 32306. The individual or associate dues of the AALL are $30 per person and you pay them to AALL Headquarters, 53 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois 60604. I am sending a copy of this letter to Nancy Kitchen, the Secretary-Treasurer of the Southeastern Chapter and to Professor Oscar M. Trelles, Membership Chairman AALL, of the University of Dayton Law Library, Dayton, Ohio 45469, for their information and assistance.

I would hope that you would become active in the Southeastern Chapter and that you would become a member of the AALL, if you are not now a member.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger
