re: AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF LAW LIBRARIES
- SOUTHEASTERN CHAPTER

Just a short note, Mrs. Kitchen. . .

. . . to let you know that I have recently learned from Mr. William C. Younger, President of the Southeastern Chapter, that you are the person to contact in regards to future site selections (in the South Florida area) for your American Association of Law Libraries Convention.

Mrs. Kitchen, I'd like you to know that HOTEL FONTAINEBLEAU would certainly appreciate your fullest consideration and extends a most cordial invitation to the American Association of Law Libraries to convene with us in 1979 here at our fine Hotel.

Mr. Younger explained that in order for any specific locality to be considered, an invitation must be submitted by the representative from that locality to the National Office. At this point, I am wondering if you might let me know who is the present President of your Florida State Chapter and, if possible, if you'd let me know of some other member who is active in the Miami area. I'd like to contact some such member to find out if they'd be willing to submit an invitation to your National Office to convene here in Miami Beach.

Again, FONTAINEBLEAU remains extremely interested in having the opportunity to headquarter this fine convention. Thank you, in advance, for any information you're able to give me.

Best regards,
