Dear Bill:

The Southwestern Chapter of AALL voted at its meeting in April to work toward having a joint meeting with the Southeastern Chapter. Most of us feel it would be better to hold this meeting in 1976 rather than in '75 so that we would have plenty of time to plan and really put together a topnotch institute. How does your chapter feel about this?

The Southwestern Chapter will meet again in St. Paul, at which time we would like to have word from you on your interest in such a meeting. I do think New Orleans is an ideal place if Harriet Lemann is willing to accept the responsibility for local arrangements. Our chapter would try to contribute some of the other things since we do not have members located in Louisiana.

I hope that I will see you in St. Paul, and I am hopeful that a joint meeting can be arranged. Best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Lolly Gasaway
