Dear Ed:

I hope you don't mind, but i am about to dump a small chore on you. At each installation of officers the new President is given a gavel. Robin asked me to see about this, actually i had forgotten because it is the chore of the S/T. Anyway, i don't have time and would have to mail it to you anyway totake to Detroit.. so would you please? IT should be a wooden gavel, about 8" long, engraved with the following:

Don Ziegenfuss
President
SEALL
1982-83

or something similar.. and then Robin presents it to him when he takes office in detroit... I will send you a check if i haven't already sent you all the money by then... I have sent the Directory to the printer and hope to send it out in two weeks with the invoices to save postage. and as soon as i get those in the mail i will send EVERYTHING to you. I have stationery and envelopes and membership records; will send that in a huge box,, but will send you a check for the balance of the account so that you can immediately make arrangements to began operating. I don't think we will have any money problems; the law firm picked up the postage for the ballots and will probably pay for a few more things before i am finished. However, remember that I sent to Jane Miller a check for $1250 as a deposit for the hotel in Atlanta because we didn't have credit established there. anyway, she expects that we will break even or close to it, on that meeting so we should be getting most of that back soon. If there is not enough to cover the scholarships, which should be coming out soon, and the next Newsletter, we may have to ask her for some of that back before she reconciles her account for the meeting. but then our own dues will be coming in and we will be flush again. sorry this is so jimbled, but i am so worried about getting things finished. and now the Directory is dumped on my when i least needed it, BNA told me to get it published here, which is o.k. but means that i have to get it done, and mailed instead of them.. just an extra job that i wasn't expecting. but since it can be combined with the invoices ,, it will help.

if you have any questions, please call or write.. thanks.
