Mr. Frits Tenpas

Norcross, GA

Dear Mr. Tenpas:

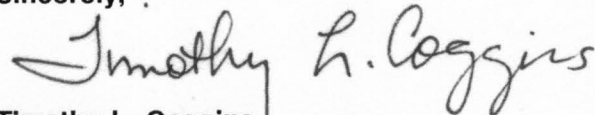

The Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries is planning a one-day educational institute on March 14, 1991 and its Annual Meeting on March 14-16, 1991 in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The Chapter has approximately 500 law librarian members who practice in all areas of law librarianship, including firm, academic, court, special, and others. We have a long history of active and influential participation in the national AALL and have had members to serve as President of AALL during two of the past five years. Currently, almost one-half of the Executive Board of AALL are Southeastern Chapter members.

The first activity for our chapter in Tuscaloosa is a one-day institute on copyright planned by Professor Jim Heller of the College of William and Mary Law Library. The Annual Meeting begins with a reception on Thursday, March 14, 1991; programs begin Friday morning, March 15 and continue through lunch on Saturday, March 16. The Program Committee, chaired by Peggy Martin, Legal Research Librarian at Paul, Hastings, Janofsky and Walker in Atlanta, has designed diverse and interesting programs about sports, environmental and space law, records preservation and management, cataloging services, desktop publishing and many other topics. Special activities planned by the Local Arrangements Committee, chaired by Professor Cherry Thomas of the University of Alabama, offer participants the opportunity to visit many sites on the campus of the University of Alabama as well as local tourist locations, such as the Mounds Indian home.

The Chapter welcomes your support and participation. Enclosed is a sheet which describes the exhibit fees and contact information at the Bryant Conference Center for exhibitors. Would you please indicate your interest in attending the annual meeting, whether you plan to exhibit, and any questions which you might have? Also, the Southeastern Chapter needs your financial support to make this conference our best and most successful ever. Can we please count on you? If you would like to sponsor a specific activity, check the appropriate space on the attached form. If you have questions, call me at 919-962-6202.

Thank you.

Sincerely, .

Timothy L. Coggins
