Dear Mr. Primavera:

Thanks very much for your letter of September 5 wanting to know if I were interested in inviting the American Association of Law Libraries to meet in Miami Beach for its 1979 convention. Invitations for the national meetings must come from the law schools and law libraries in the area of the convention because the host law libraries have a lot of work to do. The law library in your area is the University of Miami Law Library in Coral Gables. You might contact them to see if they want to sponsor another AALL convention.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger
