Dear Rhea,

I don't know how to adequately express my appreciation and that of the members of SEAALL for your terrific work as Local Arrangements Chair for the 2001 Joint Annual Meeting of SEAALL and SWALL. The meeting was an unqualified success. I did not hear any complaints - beyond the temperature of the meeting rooms which never pleases everyone!

Local arrangements is a huge undertaking. This meeting was made more complicated by being a joint meeting, by your moving in the midst of things, and probably other things that I never heard about. I know that you and everyone at Georgia State and Howard supported this effort in many ways. It takes the work of many volunteers to ensure a successful meeting. I hope that you will convey my thanks to everyone who assisted in any way.

I appreciated your continual good cheer. You have a great smile and even in moments of stress you maintained a positive, cheerful attitude. That was a huge asset whenever there were problems.

Many, many thanks for all your efforts. You did a wonderful job!

Best wishes for continued success at Howard.

Sincerely,

Catherine Lemann
