30 September 1960

Mr. Stanley Bougas, President
Southeastern Chapter
American Association of Law Libraries

Dear Stanley:

I am abject when I think of leaving all my old friends, but the die is cast and I'll be on my way to Connecticut very soon after the 1960 annual meeting of SEAALL. This, then, is to inform you that you'll be needing another Secretary-Treasurer by the time this epistle reaches you. Although this message may not fall on glad ears in Nashville (at least I chose to think that it does not), it will be welcome news to The Bank of Chapel Hill, which claims to have had a great deal of trouble keeping me out of the penitentiary. It (the Bank) and I have had several royal battles over this account (one of four in my name) but amazingly, to both of us, I have come up with an annual report owing the Chapter only two cents! There is blood on every figure, however.

Now, as to SEAALL'S GREAT PROJECT of the year--nothing. My loyal, devoted and industrious committee members on the training manual for non-professional law librarians turned in their reports, as requested, and there the matter stands. This year has been a WILD one, to say the least. Because of some un-repressed guilt feeling, I find this subject to be an unpleasant one and will not discuss it any farther.

Best wishes and fondest adieus to you all. But, as Mac Arthur said when leaving the Philippines....

Sincerely,

Cathie

(Mrs.) Catherine Maybury
