Dear Joyce:

Kathy copied me on the confusion created by the second notice for dues payment that was sent. I'm the keeper of the mailing list and I wanted to clarify what happened.

We both had notice of the renewals that were paid earlier this year. The second notice was generated because last year (and I think for several previous years) there were payments made for "Evening Reference Librarian" and "Acquisitions Librarian," in addition to named individuals. When this year's renewal came through, I was not able to tell if "names" were to replace the "positions."

Please let me know if I should remove the entries listed under the position titles, or we'll have the same confusion each year!! I generate second notices from all prior year's non-renewed entries.

Thanks, and I'm also sorry for any apparent inefficiency.

Sincerely,

Pam Williams, SEALL President
