LAW LIBRARIAN

April 26, 1949

Dear Dillard,

I have just now finished typing 9 letters to the people you so sweetly listed - have had your list mimeographed (the reason for the delay since I have no priority listing on use of the secretary or mimeograph machine - you know I can use them when no one else is). Letters, checklist and model list will be put in the mail today.

I asked Miss Long and Miss Elliott to double check the list of dealers in North Carolina material and I asked Sarah Leverette to ~~xxxxlix~~ compli (damned if I can spell that word!) compile us a list of dealers in South Carolina material.

Dead line for return of signed lists was May 10 since meeting is to be May 13, a Friday at Wake Forest College - regular invitations will be sent out next week. I extended your invitation to Sarah Leverette and also gave her an invitation to come stay with me. Sure do hope she comes.

I am sending you some extra copies of your list - had 50 made.

This is not an official letter so please do not file it. I aren't much of a typist and those 9 letters have worn me out - poor you to get the 10th. Will get in touch with you late in the week about details of the May meeting.

Say hello to Janie and the girls for me, also Mrs. Broughton.

As always,

Elizabeth
