Dear Ann:

The selection of scholarship recipients presents quite a problem when all four applicants are so well qualified and worthy of recognition. After much pondering here are my final thoughts on the matter.

Since this is a Southeastern Chapter project, I think at least some of the funds should be allocated specifically for attendance at Southeastern meetings. I also feel strongly that nothing equals attendance at an AALL annual convention or institute. Therefore, I would recommend that the money be divided into three scholarships, one for $250 and two for $125. I think we should specify that the $250 be used for attendance at the AALL annual convention or institute and that the $125 grants be allocated for attendance at SE/AALL meetings.

I would rate the applicants as follows:

- | | |
|---------------------|-------|
| 1. Elaine Poliakoff | $250 |
| 2. Steve Huang | $125 |
| 3. Faye Keller | $125 |
| 4. Steve Sommers | _____ |

I only wish we had enough money to take care of them all.

Sincerely,

Harriet M. Lemann
