Re: 1977 Scholarship Applicants

Dear Ann:

In my view, it would be best to award two scholarships in equal amounts of $250.00 - second option in your letter of February 2, 1977.

Further, I will cast my votes for Ms. Elaine Poliakoff (first choice) and Mr. Steve Huang (second choice). In the event that you need a ranking as between the other two, I would list Ms. Keller (third) and Mr. Sommers (fourth) in that order.

It is my understanding that the Chapter has elected to hold its spring Institute in conjunction with the August meeting in Asheville; hence, I assume our winners could elect between the Annual Meeting in Toronto and/or the Chapter's meeting in Asheville.

If you want or need any additional information, please feel free to call (collect). I have the good fortune of knowing three of the four applicants personally, and I feel that whichever way the Committee decides, it will be a benefit to our profession.

I shall be anxious to know the outcome.

Sincerely,

Peyton R. Neal, Jr.
