Dear Claire:

How nice to hear from you and learn the great news. Actually, I heard it about a week ago from Carol Billings.

I am enclosing a copy of our scholarship guidelines. We have only awarded one $125.00 scholarship so far. The Committee recently decided to offer one $500.00 scholarship to the annual meeting. We haven't as yet been overwhelmed with applications. Our problem seems to be getting people to apply. Perhaps either their way is being paid or they are not interested in attending meetings. We need to determine which of our members are deterred from attending meetings primarily because of the cost.

If you have any further questions, you may want to contact Karen Moss who is chairperson of our Scholarship Committee.

Best wishes to you in your coming marriage. If you bring your husband along to Chicago, perhaps he may wish to join the Charades SIS.

Sincerely yours,
