Dear Sara:

Thank you for agreeing to serve on the scholarship committee for SEAALL for 1983-84. Peggy Martin at Kilpatrick & Cody is the chairman of the committee and the other member is Katherine Kott of Duke University.

I hope that your committee can work to make association members more aware of the scholarships, and encourage them to apply for them. I also hope that they can be awarded in a timely fashion for use at either the southeastern meeting or the national meeting. In addition to your responsibilities in awarding scholarships, your committee will also be preparing a short procedural manual for future committees to use.

Peggy Martin will be contacting you directly about the committee's activities. Thank you again for agreeing to serve.

Sincerely,

Kay M. Todd
President
