Dear Susan:

I know you must think I am very negligent according to the speed with which I do not answer my mail. This is and has been a very busy year as we are still in the process of moving books from place to place. Our addition to the Law Building was completed in October, and we have been moving ever since.

The Lucile Elliott scholarship announcement and application form definitely meet with my approval. Thank you for doing all of the work. I shall try to do my part when a need arises.

I do not know whether any of our staff will attend the meeting in Atlanta or not. Frances Farmer suggested that we use the Los Angeles County Law Library Classification for our collection and we are beginning to get started on the project. We trust we have made the best choice for our particular situation.

Do you plan to attend the meeting in Seattle? I am not sure yet whether or not I shall try to go. Anyway, I trust we shall be seeing each other somewhere before too long.

Please let me hear from you if there are any little chores I can perform as a member of the Scholarship Committee. It was good hearing from you. Come to see us sometime.

Sincerely yours,

Vivian L. Wilson
