Dear Susan:

I appreciate your sending me a copy of the report you gave at the SEAALL breakfast concerning the Lucile Elliott Scholarship. I had hoped to attend the meeting at Seattle but for several reasons I could not make it. Perhaps I shall do better next year. I was delighted to learn of the increase to $200.00 for next year.

We have just completed a very busy and exciting year. Our collection is now being classified and our group is working very hard to get as much accomplished as possible during the summer. It is so much easier to work when there are fewer students around.

I hope your work is going well at Kentucky. I missed seeing you and Pearl and others this summer.

Come to see us when you can.

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs.) Vivian L. Wilson
