

Catholic University Law Review

Volume 17 | Issue 3

Article 3

1968

School of Law - Washington & Lee University - Lexington, Virginia

Clayton E. Williams

Charles P. Light

Robert E.R. Huntley

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarship.law.edu/lawreview>

Recommended Citation

Clayton E. Williams, Charles P. Light & Robert E. Huntley, School of Law - Washington & Lee University - Lexington, Virginia, 17 Cath. U. L. Rev. 295 (1968).

Available at: <https://scholarship.law.edu/lawreview/vol17/iss3/3>

This Dedication is brought to you for free and open access by CUA Law Scholarship Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Catholic University Law Review by an authorized editor of CUA Law Scholarship Repository. For more information, please contact edinger@law.edu.

School of Law
Washington & Lee University
Lexington, Virginia

WHEREAS we have learned that our good friend Vernon X. Miller, Professor of Law and Dean of the School of Law of the Catholic University of America, will retire as Dean at the end of the present academic year, and

WHEREAS Vernon Miller for over forty years has brought warmth and distinction to the teaching of the law and knowledge and understanding to the students whose good fortune it was to study under him in the Law Schools of St. Thomas (1926-30), the University of Oregon (1930-31), Marquette University (1931-38), and of the Universities next mentioned, and

WHEREAS for some twenty-eight of those years Dean Miller has made a significant contribution to legal education as Dean of the Law Schools of Loyola University in New Orleans (1940-51), the University of San Francisco (1951-54), and the Catholic University of America in the City of Washington (1954 until the present), and

WHEREAS during his entire professional life Vernon Miller has contributed to the enrichment and improvement of legal education through active participation in the work of the Association of American Law Schools which he served in many capacities, including distinguished service as the last elected Secretary-Treasurer of the Association and then as its President, and

WHEREAS the Board of Editors of the Catholic University Law Review propose to dedicate the 1968 Spring issue to Dean Miller,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Law Faculty of Washington and Lee University that the aforesaid Board of Editors be invited in the dedicatory issue to communicate to Dean Miller this expression of our high esteem and our sincere good wishes for his future happiness.

(seal)

/s/ Clayton E. Williams
Dean (1944-60)

/s/ Charles P. Light, Jr.
Dean (1960-67; 1968)

/s/ Robert E. R. Huntley
Dean (1967-68)

22 February 1968