The Hug of Doves

Sleep comes
Like the hug of doves.
It prints
The faces of crabby babies.
It sews up their cries
With silver thread.

Students swing sleep
Over black boards
With the swish of an erasure.
In the office
Receptionists lower their eyes
Over typewriters,
Like the slow wink
Of a whale at sea.

When sunlight flees
Sleep pumps
Its fingers round the necks of Flowers screeching in the sun
And pecks their petals shut
With the beaks of dreams.

Ellen Epstein

Mushroom Farming

What sounds valve and branch
Like clover in these basement caves.
Here bubbles blow and grow,
Here sounds tread water with the air,
Dim air where images recline
And wait for film
To find this darkroom.
In foreign sky,
In air as blue as iris,
These north periscopes arise.

The one-variety jungle
Is untenanted, no Tarzan,
No domestic ape. There are
Of course the holiday excursionists,
The tulip flares of their matches
Blooming into dark.
They leave the jungle to its own
Fierce ways, its arbitrary night,
And come away,
Its sounds inside
Like well-placed wounds.

And still they seem to say
Of this soft dirt:
The steps of some shoes
Could be different, many a man
Has made his fortune in mushrooms.

Yellow House Hotel

At six o'clock the light expands and fills
The great vat.
Valley to the ridge holds suns,
Beaten tins at six o'clock and the thinnest panes
In the first hotel in Yellow House.
Flat wagons, drawn in tandem, corner at the yellow house.
A dozen buggies, blacker than the horseflies on the sills
Descend the hill beyond the Yellow House Hotel.
The windows painted, now, in dust from flying wheels.
Black Amish beat the shadows under harness,
Draw the long, bent light through afternoon,
Drape the floor in dust and
Drum the painted buggies past the yellow door.

Girls Without Fathers

Somehow you arrived without escort and you have made it all the way here.
You, who gained your lessons in obtuse ways, learned anger in a house of soft voices. In the gammon of your dreams, father was drunk and would have rolled off easily. So I came tearing at the trees of your past, remembering lives without foreplay.

Irv Broughton

Cleaning Chandeliers

At the depthlike centre of night.
The moon in the yard and thin in the grass
Like a quivering dime.
By the light of candles stuck in shoes.
Two girls sit, rubbing and dip,
Their feet under cold satin skirts,
Bright hair adrift in their laps.

Cleaning chandeliers, ray by ray,
Each obelisk distilled and poured in line
Like a gesture of song,
Like sorrow's youngest find.
They are more than unfoldings,
Or idle planes of mirrored time.
Do not hold them to your heart,
Or think to cool your eye.
The icy blister binds you to them;
That crackle of asters,
That sharp expectation of fire,
Is your eye.

Cyndy Rose

A Pod of Seals

They were given
Stern angles and cold hearts,
But when the icebergs
Had one wish,
It was a pod of seals.

A seal was a contrast to white,
Was sleek to water
And soft with air.

And then there was
Its ability of barking
And agility of applause.
And in some frozen center,
The icebergs
Thought themselves
Great comedians.
