Every year, early in June, a Y. W. C. A. Conference is held at Blue Ridge, N. C. Blue Ridge is a beautiful place, in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains, about eighteen miles from Asheville, N. C. Here southern students gather for ten glorious days of valuable instruction and wholesome good times.

This Conference is conducted by well-known Association workers and other Christian leaders. Interccurse with them is a source of great help and inspiration, not only for Y. W. C. A.

work, but in one's own personal life.

Hollins has now a lovely cottage with Virginia Medical College, beautifully located on the side of the mountain. The Hollins girls use it during the Y. W. C. A. Conference, and the Virginia Medical College boys during the Y. M. C. A. Conference following.

What are you going to get from Hollins?

What are you going to give in return?

WHY YOU SHOULD BELONG TO THE Y. W. C. A.

(3) It will deepen your own spiritual life, and will afford you good training in Christian Work.

(4) It will present to you the deeper, truer meaning of Christianity.

Hollins Songs

The Green and the Gold

Words by Phoebe Hunter, 1909---

Music by Alma McConihay, 1910

I

O fair maiden Spring, what hue will you bring
To our cause from your own sunny sheen
You have brought for your part the hue nearest your heart,

And spread Hollins' hillsides with green.
And you, frosty Fall, the most brilliant of all,
What color for us do you hold?

You have laid your fair hand with its torch on our land,

And set our trees flaming with gold.

II

The Green and the Gold, we have loved it of old,

And to it we will ever be true.

For the memory will last of the days that are past,

And linger, dear Hollins, with you.

For life, when we're young, is a song that is sung,

And must pass as a tale that is told,

But honor and praise, to the end of our days,

We will render the Green and the Gold.

III

And still at the thought of the good she has wrought,

Each heart must with gratitude thrill—

So to Hollins we'll sing 'till the mountainsides ring,

Our jewel of woodland and hill.

There are true, loyal friends that our college life lends,

And treasurers of life manifold,

And many kind Fortune bless with eternal success

Our Hollins, the Green and the Gold.

Founder's Day Hymn

Words by Miss Loulie A. Snead

Music by Miss Ruth Hill Hibbard

Where are the dreams of the dreamer?

Roseate they flashed in the dawn,

Instinct with promise of sunrise,

Of service to ages unborn.

Eager and restless and honest,

Daring, aspiring, and bright—

Where is the vision? 'Twas holy;

Can it be lost with the night?

II

We are the dreams of the dreamer.

Think you his visions could fade?

Saw you his eyes as he journeyed?

Know you the price that he paid

Ours the fruition of gladness

Ours the light and the gleam—

Lifting our eyes to the mountains

We too are dreaming a dream.

III

Guard you the dreams of the dreamer,

Quiet the ways that he trod.

Held in its chalice of mountains

Hollins lies open to God.

Simple and earnest and daring

Friendly and quiet and true;

Such was the dream of our Founder,

Such his ideal for you.

In 1842

Oh, Hollins people, listen here,

A song I'll sing to you.

Of what occurred at this dear place

In eighteen forty-two-two-two-two.

Chorus

Sing, sisters, sing! sisters sing!

And let old Hollins ring, ring, ring.

As Mr. Cocke was passing by,

Said "I'll tell you what I'll do.

I'll start a school at this dear place

For boys and girls like you-you-you-you."

So many came the first school year

Real boys, and not a few;

But this, dear girls, remember, was

In eighteen forty-two-two-two-two.

Soon Mr. Cocke real worried got.

And saw this wouldn't do;

So "Boys," he said, "you stay away;

Girls, I'll run this school for you-you-you you."

So many years we've come on here

Our hearts are always true

To ideals made and given to us
In eighteen forty-two-two-two-two.

H-o-l-l-i-n-s, Hollins, rah!
Our Hollins College, we'll sing to you,
Pride of Virginia's land.
We love you, yes, we do, dear Hollins,
Long may we cherish thee, love and adore,
Sing, praise and honor, forevermore.

I've got a five-pound box of candy,
And it certainly is a dandy.
Boom Dee Dee; Lum Boom Bay!
Ever since I got that five-pound box
Each friend of mine comes 'round,
And on my door she knocks.
"Won't you lend me—a tie?" she'll sweetly say.

Boom Dee Dee; Yum Boom;
Boom Dee Dee; Yum Boom;
Boom, Boom, Boom, Boom, Bay!

I began with a lot of money,
And it certainly is funny
Where that money goes!
I lost some in Roanoke, I suppose;
A little went for food,
And possibly for clothes,
But the rest has vanished, who knows—
Where that money—Gee it's funny!
Where that money goes!

Oh, see those girls of Hollins

A-standing in the line,
And all of them are little friends of mine.
They know just how to work there,
They know just how to play—
Oh, Hollins, girls, we cheer you every time!

Chorus

Now, Sweet Briar's not slow,
Randolph-Macon's on the go,
West Hampton's mighty, mighty fine;
But gives us, oh give us, oh how I wish you would,
Our dear old Hollins College every time!

Hollins You're the Place for Me

Words by Elaine Savage

Hollins, Hollins, you're the place for me
I'd get tired of such frivolity,
For all my college years are very short, I know
And when I leave them I will surely want to go right back to—
Hollins, Hollins, oh! We all love you
Just like those in 1842.
It may not be like Paradise
But, gee we think it's mighty nice
To be here
In Hollins Land.
