THE GREEN AND THE GOLD

Words by Phoebe Hunter, 1909
Music by Alma McConihay, 1910

I

O fair maiden Spring, what hue will you bring
To our cause from your own sunny sheen?
You have brought for your part the hue nearest your heart,
And spread Hollins' hillsides with green.
And you, frosty Fall, the most brilliant of all,
What color for us do you hold?
You have laid your fair hand with its torch on
our land,
And set our trees flaming with gold.

II

The Green and the Gold, we have loved it of old,
And to it we will ever be true,
For the memory will last of the days that are
past,
And linger, dear Hollins, with you.
For life, when we're young, is a song that is sung,
And must pass as a tale that is told,
But honor and praise, to the end of our days,
We will render the Green and the Gold.

III

And still at the thought of the good she has wrought,
Each heart must with gratitude thrill—
So to Hollins we'll sing till the mountainsides
ring,
Our jewel of woodland and hill.
There are true, loyal friends that our college
life lends,
And treasures of life manifold,
And may kind Fortune bless with eternal success
Our Hollins, the Green and the Gold.

IN 1842

Oh, Hollins people, listen here,
A song I'll sing to you,
Of what occurred at this dear place
In eighteen forty-two-two-two-two.

CHORUS

Sing, sisters, sing! sisters sing!
And let old Hollins ring, ring, ring.

As Mr. Cocke was passing by,
Said "I'll tell you what I'll do.
I'll start a school at this dear place
For boys and girls like you-you-you-you."

So many came the first school year
Real boys, and not a few;
But this, dear girls, remember, was
In eighteen forty-two-two-two-two.

Soon Mr. Cocke real worried got,
And saw this wouldn't do;
So "Boys," he said, "you stay away;
Girls, I'll run this school for you-you-you-you."

So many years we've come on here
Our hearts are always true
To ideals made and given to us
In eighteen forty-two-two-two-two.

H-o-l-l-i-n-s, Hollins, rah!
Our Hollins College, we'll sing to you
Pride of Virginia's land.
We love you, yes we do, dear Hollins,
Long may we cherish thee, love and adore,
Sing, praise and honor, forever more.

I've got a five-pound box of candy,
And it certainly is dandy.
Boom Dee Dee; Yum Boom Bay!
Ever since I got that five-pound box
Each friend of mine comes 'round,
And on my door she knocks.
"Won't you lend me—a tie?" she'll sweetly say.
Boom Dee Dee; Yum Boom;
Boom Dee Dee; Yum Boom;
Boom, Boom, Boom, Boom, Bay!

I began with a lot of money,
And it certainly is funny
Where that money goes!
I lost some in Roanoke, I suppose;
A little went for food,
And possibly for clothes,
But the rest has vanished, who knows—
Where that money—Gee, it's funny!
Where that money goes!

Oh, see those girls of Hollins
A-standing in the line,
And all of them are little friends of mine.
They know just how to work there,
They know just how to play—
Oh, Hollins girls, we cheer you every time!

CHORUS

Now, Sweet Briar's not slow,
Randolph-Macon's on the go,
Stuart Hall is mighty, mighty fine;
But give us, oh, give us, oh how I wish you would
Our dear old Hollins College every time!
