Note and Comment

THE JUSTIN MILLER PRIZE

The Board of Editors of Montana Law Review has the pleasure to announce the Justin Miller prize, of a $100 United States Defense Bond, to be awarded to the author of the best student note published in this issue.

Justin Miller, Associate Justice of the United States Court of Appeals, Washington, D. C., was a member of the first graduating class of Montana State University Law School in 1913. He delivered the commencement address at Montana State University in 1941, at which time he received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree. In the Spring 1941 issue of Montana Law Review, he contributed a leading article, "Uniform Criminal Law Administration."

* Now serving with the U. S. Army.
