INTRODUCTION:

The Indiana University Maurer School of Law's Digital Repository has been operational since June of 2011. Created as a service of the Jerome Hall Law Library to collect and preserve the scholarship, publications, and archival material of Maurer Law, the collection now contains more than 11,800 items. By the end of 2018/19, these open-access materials had been downloaded more than 4.9 million times by users in 237 countries.

This brief report documents the use and growth of the repository during the period September 1, 2018 to August 31, 2019. The report is arranged in two parts: 2018/19 Statistics and All-time Statistics.

2018/19 STATISTICS

The Jerome Hall Law Library added 381 new items to the repository in 2018/19. These items were downloaded 5,872 times during the year. As in past years, most of the items added to the collection were articles – articles from the school's five active law reviews and articles written by Maurer faculty published in other law reviews. Additionally, a few unique items were added to the collection this year – the complete run of the late 1960s early 1970s student-produced publication The Appeal, the law school pages from the 1907 edition of The Arbutus yearbook, and a 1955 Supreme Court Day program commemorating the first sitting of Indiana Supreme Court justices on May 5, 1817.

Another important historical document, though not technically a part of the repository, is the Register of Graduates \(1830-1916\). The Register is a Hathi Trust document that has been made accessible through the repository. The Register lists graduates of Indiana University, including the law school, by graduation year. The Register compliments the Alumni of the Law Department, 1844-1874, uploaded last year. Finally, 72 profiles of Notable Alumni were added to the collection in 2018/19. This collection now includes profiles of all members of the Academy of Law Alumni Fellows and most of the recipients of the Distinguished Service Award (to be completed in 2019/20).
