ON TO WESLEYAN.

Everyone Going to Middletown.

The annual Trinity-Wesleyan game which comes tomorrow afternoon at Middletown has been the Trinity campus topic of conversation during the past week. The game promises to be one of the most hard-fought contests ever played between these two rivals. At present both teams have reached the height of training and are in excellent condition.

On Tuesday Wesleyan played a 0 to 0 game with New York University, a team which Trinity beat a few weeks ago to the score of 18 to 4. By comparative scores it would seem that it would be a Trinity victory. Notwithstanding this, the Trinity men are not over-confident as they know the Wesleyan men are out for blood and will fight their hardest up to the time when the whistle will announce the end of the second half.

COACH GETTELL.

The Trinity team is working under secret practice the last few days, and with the combined efforts of Coach Gettell and ex-coach Landefeld, some surprises in new plays will doubtlessly be sprung.

As to the weights of the two teams, the Wesleyan line is far heavier than that of Trinity and will probably average at least ten pounds per man heavier. The back field of both teams are about equal as far as weight is concerned.

The probable line-up will be:

It is expected that nearly all of the undergraduates at Trinity, many of the Hartford Alumni, and many local peo-

PRESIDENT LUTHER RE-ELECTED TO STATE SENATE.

Receives Good Majority at the Polls.

Although everyone was particularly interested in the presidential election, still the members of the college watched closely the result of the contest for senator in the First District. It was with great pleasure they learned that President Flavel S. Luther had been re-elected by a vote of 3,233 to 1,880 over the Democratic candidate, Mr. Raoul W. D'Arche.

It will be remembered that President Luther's nomination for senator was unanimous, and this large majority at the polls is very gratifying to President Luther's friends.

PRESIDENT ELIOT OF HARVARD RESIGNS.

The board of overseers of Harvard University has received and accepted the resignation of President Charles W. Eliot, which will take effect on May 19, 1909.

The following letter contains President Eliot's resignation:

To the President and fellows of Harvard College:

Gentlemen: I hereby resign the office of president of Harvard University, the resignation to take effect at your convenience but not later than May 19, 1909. The president's intimate association with the other members of the corporation in common service to the university is one of the most precious privileges of his highly privileged office. For this association with fifteen friends who are dead and seven who are living I shall always be profoundly grateful. Congratulating you on your labors and satisfactions in the past and on the sure prospect of greater labors and satisfaction to come I am, with high respect,

Your friend and servant,

CHARLES W. ELIOT.

President Eliot will complete forty years of service in Harvard University on May 16, 1909. About a month ago the corporation received his resignation and it was only after several conferences that the resignation was accepted out of regard for the president's wishes to retire to private life. In so doing the members of the board expressed their confidence in the president's unimpaired ability to administer the affairs of the university to the satisfaction of the governing boards and faculties.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION MEETING TONIGHT.

There will be a meeting of the Athletic Association tonight at 6.45, in the History Room. A new secretary-treasurer of the association will be elected. The meeting will be followed by a short practice of cheers and songs for the Wesleyan game tomorrow.

TRINITY ALUMNI FIGURE IN ELECTION DAY INCIDENT.

Professor J. J. McCook, '63, and his son Anson T. McCook, '02, played a prominent part in an incident which was about all the Hartford Police Court had for excitement Wednesday. Professor McCook is the chairman of the executive committee of the citizens' committee on the enforcement of the Corrupt Practices Law. Among the other members of the citizens' committee are Walter S. Schutz, '94, J. McA. Johnson, '03, and Professor McCook's son. Being a member of this committee, the latter was somewhat surprised Tuesday afternoon to have a man walk up to him and tell him that he had "voted his little ticket," and that he had been assured that Mr. McCook would "make it all right with him for voting that way."

Mr. McCook took his cue right away and asked how much he was to get for his vote, and he was told that the amount was $1 and the man who had assured him that he would receive it was pointed out. This was Mr. Thomas Golden of Talcott Street, and the confidential gentleman was Mr. Patrick J. Cusick.

Mr. McCook then had both men arrested and both were released later on $200 bonds. In the examination Golden denied ever having known Cusick, and many think that he had nothing to do with it. Cusick, in his defense, said he was going to vote the ticket anyway, and that he could not see any harm in making a dollar as long as he did not change his vote.

Judge Clark released him on the ground that he had been made the victim of a practical joke, one which was however more cruel than the perpetrators knew.

Upon hearing the verdict, Professor McCook leaped to his feet and, speaking through Prosecuting Attorney Dickinson, said, "I think I can speak as an expert in this thing, and the verdict is a joke."

TRINITY UNDERGRADUATES HELP.

On election day a number of the college men put in a strenuous day by assisting at the various party headquarters throughout the city.

Their duties consisted in answering the telephones, keeping the check lists and bringing voters to the polls. Creedon, '09, and Connor, '09, had charge of the men who did this work. They were as follows: Maxson, '09, Plant, '09, Xanders, '09, Elwell, '09, Chandler, '09, Livingston, '09, Marlbor, '10, Webster, '10, Potter, '10, Stansfield, '10, Dewey, '11, Buhl, '11 and Sommers, '12.

"LANDY" ARRIVES.

Will Assist Coach Gettell.

Former Coach J. Clinton Landefeld ex-'07, arrived on Trinity field in time for practice on Tuesday and was given a hearty "Trin" by many of the undergraduates, who were attending the practice. He will work in connection with Coach Gettell and give the team the benefit of his wide experience on the gridiron.

FORMER COACH LANDEFELD.

Landefeld seems to be well satisfied with the way the squad is working, though he has expressed no opinion as to the outcome of the Wesleyan game on Saturday. Yesterday he spent most of the time with the "scrub," and coached the 'varsity line a good deal.

GLEE CLUB MEETING.

Regular Rehearsals Hereafter.

The first regular rehearsal of the Glee was to be held last Tuesday evening, but owing to the fact that Mr. Davis was unable to attend and that the attendance of candidates was so small, no work was done.

Paul Roberts, '09, leader of the club, spoke briefly on what was expected of them in regard to regular and prompt attendance at the rehearsals.

It was decided to hold rehearsals for the present at 12.45 on Friday and at 6.45 on Tuesday.

There will be a short meeting of the Tripod Board on Monday evening at 6.45 o'clock in the Tripod Room.

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

"Now then Trinity"—Tomorrow comes the big football game of the season. We are up against the Red and Black of Wesleyan, and everyone must go to Middletown and encourage the team. We have never been able up to now to defeat Wesleyan on the gridiron of Andrus Field. Let us break the spell tomorrow. We have a fighting and aggressive team, so everyone, undergraduate, alumnus, and everyone interested in the college get together and go down the "Valley Road" tomorrow afternoon, and cheer and sing your best for a victory for the Gold and Blue.

At the Amherst game Trinity was well represented on the side-lines; but that was a game that was really not as important as the Wesleyan game, which comes tomorrow. It is necessary to have all of the undergraduates to "root" for the home team. It is certain that every Trinity man has a lot of college spirit; so let it be shown tomorrow, when the Blue and Gold meets the Red and Black.

The marks for the first month of the college year have now been given out and the general standing of the men is about as last year.

These notices are given to the student as a warning that his work in certain departments is unsatisfactory. They are meant to help him, and not to discourage him. For the new men especially, this is a critical time, for the professors are now forming their opinions as to the student's ability. If one falls below the standard during the first part of the year, it will be very hard for him to regain a good standing. So let every one now settle down to work and realize that it is at the beginning of the year that the most satisfactory work can be done. It is at this time that the foundation is laid for the college year's record, and work done well now will be so much gained when the examinations are at hand.

ON TO WESLEYAN.

ple will go down to Middletown on the special train to witness the contest. The special train will leave the local station at 1.15, thus arriving in Middletown in time for the game, which is called at 2.30. The return will be made at 5.15. Tickets for the round trip will cost 70 cents and can be purchased from the management at the college or on the train. No other tickets can be used on this train.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

The Wesleyan football eleven was unable to score in its game with New York University at University Heights, New York, Tuesday afternoon, and the contest ended 0 to 0. While it was a drawn game, neither side scoring, honors really remained with New York. Twice the Wesleyan team got within striking distance of the New York goal but were unable to carry the ball across the line.

The Masque, the Cornell Dramatic Club, at its junior week performance of 1910 will present a new and original musical comedy. In view of its previous achievements it is hoped that a worthy successor to "Panatela" and "Popocatepillar VII" will be forthcoming. The most suitable play will be selected from the manuscripts submitted to the council by the undergraduates. It will consist of two acts, including sixteen to eighteen lyrics, and will be given in the several cities at which the Masque will stop on the trip which will be taken as usual, following the Ithaca performance.

Wednesday night, according to custom, the Williams seniors had their usual celebration. On that night no light can remain burning in the college buildings and none but seniors or some luckless underclassman is supposed to be on the street. The seniors and their invited guests meet at a selected place where a feed and a program of entertainment is provided, the guests from the freshman and sophomore classes furnishing the latter.

The quadrennial directory of living graduates of Yale University, recently published, shows that the total number of living graduates is 14,806 as compared with 12,665 four years ago. Of the graduates 14,211 live in the United States. The percentages of increase in four years have been in the South Atlantic states about 20 per cent., in the south central states about 21 per cent., and in the western division of states about 25 per cent. These percentages compare with only about 17 per cent. increase in New England and about 14 per cent., in North Atlantic states.

Washington and Jefferson has protested the playing of Mount Pleasant on the Dickinson team.

The following letter which was recently printed in the "Hartford Times" will be of interest to Trinity men:

"The well-known physician whose notions of what he calls 'frats at Trinity or the high school' are so vehemently expressed in your issue of last night and who thinks the police ought to stop these brutal exhibitions, could never have been honored with an invitation to join a college fraternity such as those which have formed a part of the student life of Trinity and the other New England colleges for over 80 years. A knowledge of the condition in any one of these institutions could never have led any one to imagine that such a mixture of child's play and rowdiness as is hinted at has any place in the proceedings of any of the Greek-letter organizations which have been so readily condemned but whose really serious import one may easily discover without peering beyond their veil of secrecy.

"Whatever may be the tendency toward hazing and horse-play in prep.
 schools, the proceedings of a college fraternity are to both the graduate and the initiate, matters so serious and dignified that any attempt at a discussion of fraternity affairs has come to be almost a breach of college etiquette. It is time, however, that they came to be generally recognized in the manner so insisted upon by the student and that every display of loud and boisterous conduct in public places in the city should not be credited to Trinity college or its social organizations."

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and to-morrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company. In a company that earns, declares and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.
