TABLES ISSUED BY PRESIDENT LUTHER.

The following tables showing the scholastic standings of the various fraternities for the Christmas Term have been issued by President Luther. DEBATE WITH RUTGERS.

Question of Universal Military Service After War the Topic.

"Resolved: That Universal Military Training should be the Policy of the Nation after the War," will be the proposition which the Trinity and Rutgers debating teams will argue on Friday evening, March 15. Trinity will be represented by two teams: freshman and varsity. The varsity will support the negative, in Hartford; the freshmen will uphold the affirmative in New Brunswick. Try-outs for the two teams were held last Wednesday afternoon.

After the Rutgers debate is over, it is probable that Trinity will meet either New York University or Amherst on the same topic.

ARCHER P. SAYRES IN CANADIAN AMBULANCE SERVICE.

Archer P. Sayres, '13, who is a private in the 10th Canadian Ambulance Service, now in France, has written the following letter to Mr. Edgar F. Waterman, Treasurer of Trinity College:

"Your letters, addressed to my home and forwarded to France, have been following me for two months, owing to the fact that as a 'casualty' I have in that period passed through a 'clearing station', hospital and two convalescent depots, remaining in the second one. My casualty is hardly worth mentioning, not being a wound. The official name of it was 'myalgia in the legs', which means in the English language temporary rheumatism, brought on by living, working, eating and sleeping—in weather and soil conditions (mostly soil) not exactly similar to those to be found in the Sahara Desert.

PRESIDENT LUTHER AND DR. MIEL TO SPEAK AT ALUMNI MEETING.

The annual meeting and smoker of the Hartford Alumni Association of Trinity College will be held at the University Club next Saturday night, at 7.45 o'clock.

THE COLLEGE MAN AND THE WAR

OPINIONS OF T. W. GREGORY, ATTORNEY - GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES.

The relationship of the college man to this war is almost sui generis. It has a great point of vantage and a great responsibility.

Fresh from the study of the course and the instances of history, the college man should be able to look through the words and acts with which men and nations sometimes seek to disguise their real motives and purposes and to see in all their nakedness the true and real objects at which ambitious dynasties and nations aim. After all, the elemental passions of greed and avarice which drove the Persian to his ruin at Thermopylae are identical with those which have influenced dynasties since that time. Taught to detect all these in the actions of men and nations in the past, observant of the inexorable rules of cause and effect which have always heretofore and will always hereafter operate while man is man, he should have no illusions as to the great forces which have plunged and are holding the world in their terrible grip.

The college man has a large part of the responsibility of seeing that truth prevails. He will do but half his duty, will meet but half his responsibility, if he merely offers his own life for his country. He must, in addition to and beyond this, see to it that those of us whose vision has been dimmed by contact with the rough realities of life, share with him his wisdom, his intuition and his inspiration, that we, also, where necessary, shall be likewise willing to give our lives for truth, liberty and justice, to the end that the world shall be saved for a free humanity.—Patriotic News Service.

VICKERS MACHINE GUN DEMONSTRATED TO BATTALION.

The second drill of the battalion was held at the State Armory last night. Both companies spent forty-five minutes in close order work, under Captain J. H. Kelso Davis.

An interesting demonstration of the Vickers Machine Gun was given after the battalion had been dismissed. An opportunity will be offered for the members of the battalion to study machine guns in a thorough manner at The Colt's Patent Fire Arms Manufacturing Company's factory. More detailed information concerning the formation of a class for this purpose will be issued later.

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

AN ENCORE.

When you come to the end of a
meatless day

And you sit down to dine on a fish;

When the dinner bell rings out
with irony gay

For the unpeeled spuds in their dish,

When you know that the hope
of a thick mince pie

Is as vain as a dream of a steak;

When the sun goes down in a
rare-beef sky,

Then you feel that the world is a fake.

And next comes the end of a wheatless day

The corn cake and eke oleO
And the rye, undistilled, with
the taste of hay,

The barley and bran also.

O how hunger recalls a far nobler day

When we ate what we liked
and were free,

And there'll be hot times and a corking fray

When Hoover encounters me.

KIRKBY ON AVIATION SERVICE.

Kent Shirley Kirkby, '17, who was editor of "The Tripod" last year, is now at an aviation training camp at KENT S. KIRKBY, '17.

Lake Charles, La. He has written the following letter:

"I want to thank the college for the beautiful Christmas card that came to me some time ago. I appreciate it very much indeed. No other college that I know of remembered her sons as Trinity did.

I got down here the Thursday before Christmas and may be here several months longer, as it is now planned to give us much of our advanced training, stunt flying, aerial gunnery and photography, night flying, and bombing, here.

A number of fast birds are already here, but so far only the demonstrator, some instructors, and the major have been up in them. As ships go they are not exceptionally speedy, making about a hundred and five or ten, but they are a big jump in advance of the J N 4s's we fly.

The school is new and when we got here only comparatively few boats were in commission, and as a result we got less flying than at Mineola, Long Island.

The country around here is very flat, with flat mounds a few feet high scattered quite frequently around. We have been having cool weather which seems highly inappropriate, and a week or so ago we had the worst snowstorm in years. It snowed for about twenty minutes, but it really was a snowstorm while it lasted. The cold, though, has not been enough to interfere with the flying. However, the wind is quite inconvenient at times. Today, for instance, we had a fifty-mile wind. The wind itself is not so bad as the clouds of dust it raises. I never saw, felt, or tasted worse dust in my life. It gets through everything and cuts and scratches in a most unpleasant manner. The good weather, though, is most satisfactory. Christmas and New Year's days, for example, being splendid specimens of the ideal Decoration day, so far were they from their own type.

I have come across no other Trinity men here yet, although there must be some. The school is very nearly up to its capacity of one hundred and men from different barracks rarely meet."

'07—Lieut. Parker Vanamee, rector of St. Johns Church, Essex, who is serving under General Pershing in France, was wounded in the knee by a bomb from a German airplane. He is, as far as known, the first priest of the American Church to suffer casualty. He has sufficiently recovered from his wound now to be back again with his battalion.

ert. I could not stand up when they shipped me off, but now I am entirely cured and will soon rejoin my unit. My duties are those of a stretcher bearer with the 10th Canadian Field Ambulance.

You will never know—for it is impossible for you to realize and for me to express—sir, what it meant to me to receive under the stars of France the letters of sympathetic touch with Trinity and the wonderful card which reached me the day after Christmas! This card I am keeping in my 'pack'; and when a man who faces a series of marches under 'full pack' keeps a thing in that pack—it is the test of what that thing means to him.

In groping for some means or form or ideas of expressing which would convey to you the thrill and revived spirit your message from Trinity caused in my very being, all I can repeat (with every word burning still as it burned in my blood that first night on the Campus after my first wonderful Chapel Service—with President Luther's 'Rain Bow' address and the majestic 'Holy, Holy, Holy'—two things my class of 1913 will never, never forget)—is that it gave me courage, gave me might.

I find that I am writing strangely. But, somehow, over here when you are headed once more toward The Line (I was marked 'Fit' today) you think a bit strangely and, I guess, you write a bit strangely and unconventionally. But I reckon I had better stop writing."
