Why Major in Religion at Southern?

About 130 undergraduate students are pursuing religion degrees at Southern. This allows for deep and extended fellowship with others who have received a similar life calling.

Theology and pastoral care majors spend two years with a mentoring pastor in local churches during the externship program.

Students have the opportunity to interview for pastoral positions with a number of conferences who come to campus each year.

Overseas evangelism trips are subsidized by the Pierson Institute of Evangelism and World Missions.

Majors Offered:

A Bible worker certificate is offered through the School of Religion's Soul-winning and Leadership Training (SALT) program.
