UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON
DIVISION OF EDUCATION

New president of the Fulton J. Sheen Chapter of the Student Education Association is Trudy Schwieterman, of 304 Ridgewood Avenue, Dayton, presently completing her sophomore year in elementary education. Newly elected vice-president is Dick Dixon, 33 East Wren Circle, Dayton. The elections were held at 7:00 p.m. last Wednesday, May 22, ⁱⁿ at the Student Union Building under the chairmanship of Nancy Caldwell.

The other elected officers are: Pat Longfield, 7505 Lawnview Avenue, Cleveland, secretary; Edward A. Rogerson, Jr., 3869 Addison, Dayton, treasurer; Barbara Wolke, 217 Reading Road, Reading; historian; Grace R. Lerch, R. R. #5, Xenia, activity chairman; Frances Meyer, 66 W. Hillcrest Avenue, Dayton, publicity chairman.

The newly elected officers plan to meet this week in order to choose their moderator for the next academic year. Plans are also being drawn up to schedule the important SEA sponsored events extending throughout the whole of next year. ⁹¹ Asked how she felt about being elected president, Trudy Schwieterman replied: "It is a wonderful privilege and a tremendous responsibility. Sometimes I get scared, but I can assure all of our Education students that I will do my very best in leading our Student Education Association to new professional conquests. If we have the backing of all the Education students, we certainly will be able to go far."
