Third annual cultural lecture series on "Books Worth Knowing" will be sponsored by the University of Dayton March 3 through May 5.

Season tickets for the program, featuring members of the UD faculty discussing various literary publications, will be available. Tickets will also be available at the Wohlleben Hall auditorium where each lecture will be given.

Scheduled are the following:

March 3 -- Nevil Shute's On The Beach, reviewed by Father John Elbert, professor of philosophy.

March 10 -- St. Augustine's The City of God, with Dr. James A. Summers, assistant professor of philosophy, as lecturer.

March 24 -- The Education of Women--Signs for the Future, edited by Opal D. David. This review, by Prof. R. Kathleen Whetro, dean of women, is being offered in observance of the silver anniversary of coeducation at the university.

March 31 -- The poems of Francis Thompson, with Dr. Lawrence Boll, professor of English, as lecturer. This is the centenary of the birth of this poet.

April 7 -- Vance Packard's best-selling The Status Seekers. Lecturer will be Dr. Robert Wilson, associate professor of chemical engineering.

April 21 -- The Unity of Philosophical Experience by Etienne Gilson, reviewed by Dr. Richard Baker, professor of philosophy.

April 28 -- J. Edgar Hoover's Masters of Deceit, reviewed by Dr. Edward Huth, professor of philosophy.

May 5 -- Jacques Maritain's Science and Wisdom, with lecturer to be announced.
