Barth J. Snyder, professor of business management and economics, Friday was elected chairman of the newly-organized Faculty Forum at the University of Dayton.

Brother John J. Lucier, S.M., associate professor of chemistry, was named vice chairman, and Raymond J. Stith, associate professor of civil engineering, was named secretary.

Other recently elected members of the deliberative and consultative body, include Dr. Richard R. Baker, Brother Cletus C. Chudd, Dr. Edward Harkenrider, Brother Richard A. Liebler, Prof. George H. Springer, Miss Doris A. Drees, Brother Robert A. Thomson, Joseph E. Averdick, Erving E. Beauregard, George C. Biersack, Dr. Edward A. Huth, Prof. Francis G. McGovern, Dr. Carl I. Michaelis, Harry C. Murphy, Robert B. O'Donnell, Brother Walter A. Roesch, and Dr. Kenneth C. Schraut.

The 20-member group, elected by the faculty, will function as the "voice of a responsible faculty with regard to University affairs."
