News Release

CHEMISTRY SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE FROM UD

DAYTON, Ohio, August 26, 1986 -- The University of Dayton is accepting applications from incoming freshmen for two chemistry scholarships sponsored by the Bernard J. Katchman Memorial Fund. Awards are based on ACT and/or SAT test scores and recommendations from former teachers.

The fund was established in 1970 following the death of Katchman, a professor who founded UD's Clinical Chemistry Program. Financial support for this endowment fund has been provided through individual gifts, by the Ohio Valley Section of the American Association of Clinical Chemists, and by several professional organizations.

Contact Lawrence Fox, UD Department of Chemistry, at 229-2631 for more information.
