HOLLYWOOD PRIEST RECEIVES UD AWARD

DAYTON, Ohio, July 21, 1987--Paulist Father Ellwood (Bud) Kieser, a Hollywood producer, will receive the University of Dayton's second annual Daniel J. Kane Communications Award at a ceremony on Wednesday, July 29, at the University.

The annual award recognizes an individual who has made a significant contribution to religious communications in the United States. Brother Raymond L. Fitz, S.M., president of the University, will present the award, which is named after the retired communications director of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati.

Father Kieser, executive producer of Paulist Productions, has been in the television business since 1960 when he first produced the television series "INSIGHT." In addition to the "INSIGHT" program, which aired 23 years and still runs in syndication, Kieser and Paulist Productions also have produced several television specials and the 1986 prime-time movie "We Are The Children." Paulist Productions strives to use television as a vehicle of spiritual enrichment.

Kieser is also founder and president of the Human Family Institute. Each year, the Institute awards the Humanitas prize to writers of nationally broadcast teleplays that communicate enriching human values.

The Paulists are an order of Catholic priests especially dedicated to the service of those outside of their church.
