DAYTON, Ohio, May 7, 1973 --- Reverend John P. Bertolucci, one of the most knowledgeable men in the Charismatic Movement within the Catholic Church, will return to Dayton on Saturday, May 12, for two lectures during a Charismatic Workshop in O'Leary Auditorium on the University of Dayton campus.

Father Bertolucci appeared in Dayton last December and is returning after many requests for a followup workshop. The workshop will begin at 10 A.M. on the 12th with the subject, "The Charismatic Movement and the Resurrection". His second lecture will be given at 1 P.M. and is entitled, "The Charismatic Movement and Psychology".

Father comes from the Diocese of Albany, New York, with a background of knowledge and experience in the Charismatic movement. As Vice-Chancellor of the Diocese, his care and concern for the Charismatic Movement stems from his personal involvement. From his background of pastoral knowledge and "know-how" he gives us the relationship of the Movement to Jesus in the Resurrection, and also to our psychological make-up.

The Workshop is being sponsored by the University's Department of Theological Studies. The lectures are free and a person need only pay for his or her lunch. Call 229-4321 for information.
