LATIN AMERICAN ISSUES TO BE ADDRESSED AT UD

DAYTON, Ohio -- Maj. Gen. Felix Santoni, deputy commander-in-chief for mobilization and reserve affairs for the U.S. Southern Command, will speak about "The United States in Latin America: Political and Economic Issues from a Military Perspective" at 8 p.m. Wednesday, March 3, in the University of Dayton's Kennedy Union Ballroom.

Admission is free and open to the public.

Santoni will address topics such as humanitarian aid to Latin American countries, economic and political development programs, and U.S. military operations in the region.

This speech is sponsored by UD's student government association, the University of Dayton chapter of the Association of the United States Army and the Organization for Latin American Concerns.

For more information, call the student government association at (513) 229-4444.
