THE WOOSTER VOICE

A COLLEGE WEEKLY PUBLISHED THROUGHOUT THE YEAR BY THE STUDENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF WOOSTER

VOL. XVIII

WOOSTER, OHIO, MAY 26, 1909

NO. 3

POST-GRADUATE

RECITAL

One of the biggest treats of the year in the line of recitals, occurred Wednesday evening when Miss Mary Nice of the Conservatory class of '06, gave a post-graduate piano recital. Coupled with a brilliant technique—and brilliant seems almost too tame a word for the splendid exhibition of skill on Wednesday evening—Miss Nice shows great sympathy and power of expression.

The Sonata Appassionata (Op. 57) of Beethoven is a very difficult number, both for memorization and execution, and Miss Nice performed it with most creditable success. The second movement (Andante con moto) was perhaps the most successfully done of the four.

Of the second number, the Schubert—Liszt "Auf dem Wasser zu singen" was unquestionably the favorite and Miss Nice played this in such a manner that the critic wrote upon his program "wunderschoen gethan."

The third number was made up of selections of the two great technique masters, and it is difficult to say which of the three selections was the best executed or gained most favor. The last one, however, Brahms—Rhapsodie, Op. 119, No. 4, was beautifully done and deserved all the applause it received.

The concert closed in a blaze of glory with the second Hungarian Rhapsodie (Liszt), a brilliant, wonderfully-well-done number. The program in full follows:

Beethoven—Sonata Appassionato, Op. 57

Allegro assai

Andante con moto

Allegro ma non troppo

Presto

Chopin—Etude, Op. 10, No. 5

Schubert—Liszt—Auf dem Wasser zu singen

Schumann—Novellette, Op. 21

Liszt—Waldesrauchen

Brahms—Intermezzo, Op. No. 1

Brahms—Rhapsodie, Op. 119, No. 4

Liszt—Rhapsodie Hongroise, No. 2

FRESHMAN-JUNIOR

BANQUET

As was expected, the Freshman class came up to their usual high standard, last Thursday evening when they gave a banquet in honor of the Junior class. Whenever the class of '12 and '10 get together a great time can be expected and the event of last week was no exception to the rule.

The decorations of the large dining hall in the basement of Kauke Hall, were as many expressed it, the finest ever placed in the room. The colors of the two classes, purple and old gold for the Juniors and brown and old gold for the Freshmen were very cleverly and skillfully arranged in the form of a gabled roof. This feature of the evening is due to the work of the Social Committee of which Mr. Snell is chairman.

The menus, which were found at each plate (together with a carnation) were true works of art. Here one could find the names of the many good things that were indulged in, as well as the topics of the toasts that were the feature of the later part of the evening.

The 230 people present were waited upon in a very neat manner by Y. W. C. A. girls of the Sophomore class. During the banquet hour, delightful musical selections were given by the Excelsior Orchestra. Those present besides the members of the two, before named, classes were the honorary members Prof. J. G. Black, and Prof. W. Z. Bennett also Mrs. Peck of Ashtabula.

The menu of the evening was as follows:

Fruit Cocktail	Nabiscos
French Loaf	Cream Potatoes
Potato Rusks	Baked Corn
	Pickles and Olives
	Sandwiches
Waldorf Salad	Wafers
Cake	Ice Cream
Peppermint Wafers	Coffee
	Wintergreen Wafers.

Immediately following the serving of the banquet, Pres. Rudy of the Freshmen class, arose and in a few appropriate introductory remarks, introduced the toasters. Due to unavoidable absence from the city, Mr. Blankenhorn was not present, but the remaining, responded to the call of Pres. Rudy and gave some very interesting remarks on their special subjects.

The list of toasts, was as follows;

Welcome Mr. M. E. Rudy '12
 Response Mr. C. W. Johnson '10
 The Happiest Times
 Miss Helen Kinney '12
 A Time Mr. J. F. Garvin '10
 Co-eds of '10 and '12

THE PAN-HELLENIC BANQUET

Last Tuesday evening the spacious parlors of the American House were thronged by the Greeks of this institution. The event was the Annual Pan-Hellenic Banquet at which "Greek meets Greek" and where rare good fellowship reigns.

After a pleasant time spent in chatting in Host Ziegler's well-appointed parlors, the banqueters assembled in the dining room where good cheer reigned, mingled with wit and mirth. Prof. Lean as toastmaster awoke much merriment by his remarks, and made fitting introductions to each toast. After college and chapter songs had been given, the Greeks closed the affair with a rousing "Te-Deke" and left with a warmer college and Pan-Hellenic spirit.

LOCALS

The Sigs held their annual Chippewa picnic Wednesday afternoon.

The engagement of Miss Marguerite White, '08, to T. McCance Black, '08, has been announced.

Albert I. Good, '06, who has just graduated from Allegheny Seminary, is in Wooster visiting old friends before sailing for Africa next fall.

A. L. Forman, '07, of Union Seminary is visiting Wooster friends.

Clarence Allis, ex-'08, spent several days in Wooster last week.

Dr. A. S. Ludlow of Cleveland was a guest at the Alpha Tau house last week.

Dr. Blankenhorn came over from Orrville for the O. W. U. game.

Miss Mary Weber and Miss Bessy of O. W. U. spent Sunday a week ago in Wooster.

Clarence Johnson, '10, and Ralph Kithcart, '10, left for Newark, N. J. last Thursday night. From there they will go probably to some resort in N. Y. state where they will have charge of an amusement park for the summer.

Wooster friends last week received an announcement of the marriage of Miss Mary Jenkins of Tokyo, Japan to the Rev. J. M. Espey, '02. Their home is in Shanghai, China.

Herbert Machintosh, ex-'10, was in Wooster for the Reserve and Michigan games.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrington of Bowling Green visited their son and daughter over Sunday.

Epsilon chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta enjoyed a most delicious supper and delightful evening last Friday at the home of Lillian Notestein in Bloomington. The girls did ample justice to the meal and after an evening of great hilarity departed with reluctance.

Le Circle Francais met last Thursday with Katharine Seelye. The next meeting will be held at Holden Hall.

The Faculty has granted a holiday on Monday, May 31st.

ATHLETICS

A PITCHER'S BATTLE

Delaware's championship aspirations received a bad jolt last Wednesday when the Varsity won 1 to 0. It was one of the prettiest games from a fielding and pitching standpoint that has been seen here this season. Though credited with three hits, Delaware could do absolutely nothing with Shontz's delivery and none of the hits were clean. Up to the seventh inning only eighteen men faced Shontz. The fielding was the best shown this year. In the second inning Beach let a grounder go by and Jacobs, by a quick throw, got the man at first. Two fast double-plays retired the side in the fourth and sixth inning. Delaware never had a chance to score; in fact nobody reached third and but one man got to second.

On the other hand, Goddard was a complete puzzle to the Wooster batters, and only fast work on the bases saved Wooster from a shut-out. In the fourth inning, Herbert got a base on balls, stole second and third and came home when Frye grounded to Le Sourd. In the sixth, Wooster had men on second and third with only one out but the next two batters were easy. The game was a pitcher's battle, Shontz having better control and receiving better support.

RESERVE GAME

Reserve proved rather an easy proposition on Saturday. The visitors are by no means so impressive in base ball suits as in foot-ball togs, and Wooster should have run up a larger score, as Lamb's delivery seemed to suit the Wooster hitters finely.

Pryor started the scoring for Reserve in the first inning, making the circuit on a couple of errors and an out. As it turned out this was the conclusion of Reserve's scoring. In the fourth inning, singles by Oldenburg and Kagy made things look bad, but Blaser was equal to the occasion and fanned the next two men, while the third grounded to Shontz. In the eighth Reserve filled the bases but couldn't score. Blaser had fine control, not passing anyone and striking out twelve men.

Three singles a wild toss and an infield out gave Wooster two runs in the first inning. In the fifth, Shontz doubled and France followed with a three bagger. This was all the scoring, though Wooster had men on bases frequently and looked dangerous all the time. Umpire Battersby gave one or two weird decisions but his work as a whole was good. He connected with foul balls quite frequently to the cruel but immense delight of the crowd.

MICHIGAN WINS

The 'Varsity lost to Michigan by a score of 5-0 in a game featured by long hitting and good fielding on the part of both teams. The victors made the same number of runs as in the game at Ann Arbor and in each case three triples by Michigan were big factors in the results. Michigan's first run came in the fourth inning on a single by Olson and a triple by Enzenroth.

There are quite a number of people who have obligations to meet. The VOICE management would be glad to see those people at any time. If they don't soon hunt us up, we shall hunt them down.

A holiday on May 31st has been granted by the faculty in order that Decoration Day may be observed. Let us show our appreciation by observing the day fittingly.

The Student Senate has felt that it is necessary to "put the lid on" more tightly. This is due to the repeated violation of the college rules. After sounding a note of warning, the senate expects to enforce the rules very stringently, "A word to the wise is sufficient."

It is indeed high time that the rules, especially some of them, be enforced. By some, things are done directly contrary to rule and merely called good stunts. The students must observe the regulations; and furthermore when a rule is broken and punishment inflicted, the student body, whose representatives the senators are, must frown upon the culprit who broke the law and not on the person or persons who took note of the wilful violation and saw that the infringement had its just punishment.

There will be a regular number of the VOICE next week. But during the week of examination, June 7 to 12, there will be no issue. The last issue of the "school year" will appear June 16 or 17. With this Commencement Number the subscriptions for the school year, in which time 33 issues are customarily furnished, will run out. The paper is to be continued through the summer term under the same management. Better decide to subscribe for the VOICE during the summer term. Rates will be given in next number.

Men, don't forget the Y. M. C. A. Conference at Niagara on the Lake. The conference opens just after our Commencement and lasts ten days. It is really an opportunity of a life-time and none who can possibly attend should neglect to do so. Every phase of life-work is considered. Great men are heard every day. Information and inspiration are both to be found there in abundance. Try to go.

We are glad to see that the spring weather has not caused the interest in various college activities to grow less. The literary societies and clubs are doing excellent work—far better than is usually the case in the third term. Of course this warm weather should cause the athletes to appear but we wish to commend them for not getting spring fever, and, on the other hand, for their excellent work on track court and diamond.

Our faculty members still continue to be "doing things." In the current issue of the North American Review, Dr. Wisner's article on Constitutional Government in China is interesting and instructive and well worth the time which even the busiest man would use in reading it. Prof. Erb has a very fine article on "Observations about some English Cathedrals" in the recent number of the "Musician." Not alone in prose but also in poetry do our professors write. In the last "Book News Monthly" Prof. Dunn has a very excellent poem. While the June number of the "Bohemian" contains a contribution from Dr. Grumbine.

CALENDAR

- May 27—Reception for the Rev. Mr. Tait and wife, to be held during the evening in Kauke Hall.
- May 30—Regular services. The Rev. Mr. Tait will probably preach.
- May 31—Holiday for observance of Decoration Day.
- June 1—Senior Party. Index appears.
- June 3—Conservatory Concert at Chapel, 8 P. M.

Every student of the university should read at least four pages of an article entitled "College Ethics" in the May number of the Educational Review. The members of the faculty ought to read the entire article.

RELIGIOUS

Y. W. C. A.

The Annual Alumnae meeting of Y. W. C. A. was held last Wednesday evening. Zelma Frank, '08, led, giving an especially good talk on the opportunities which come after college. Then a number of interesting and enthusiastic letters from the recent Alumnae were read. As usual the Alumnae meeting proved to be a great success.

Y. M. C. A.

It must be said with some assurance of correctness that the meeting of last Wednesday evening was the best that has been held this year. This statement is further corroborated when one takes into account that the leader was Prof. W. E. Wenner. He took as his subject, "The Greater Self," and the way in which he so deftly handled his topic was a delight to all his listeners.

It would indeed detract from the meeting if one were to relate in cold faced type, all that was said during the evening and so we leave it to those present to think and ponder over the many choice thoughts that were given. The attendance was greatly increased by the presence of the boys composing the A. C. A.

LITERARY

CASTALIAN

Miscellaneous

Near and Far, Ida Schafer; recitation, Grace Beckett; original story, Bess Livenspire; Dialogue, Etta Chafin; Stern "Ed" vs Frail Co-ed, Helen Hughes; Scene from Shakespeare, Nellie Slusser, Estella Welty.

ATHENAEAN

The program at Athenaeon was about as usual. The majority of the members were present and snappy selections were given.

On the Essay Class, Devor G. gave a selection on "A Historical Review of the Panama Question."

On the Declamation class the following selections were given. Bay "My Playmate" (Whitter) Greene "The Pipes of Luckwon" (Whittier). Peck "An Encounter with an Interviewer" (Twain),

On the Extempo Class, Russel and Allison discussed the Freshman and Junior Banquet.

Taeusch—"Current Events." In absence of the regular debate Post gave an address. A good program is arranged for next week and all members are desired to be present.

IRVING

Last Friday evening the following program was given in true Irving style.

Oration—Seelye, Our World Position.

Declamation—Bowen, Fishin'.

Extem class—Reeves, The dramatic reader in the rural districts. A debate on the question Resolved that the student body should be granted a holiday on the Monday following Decoration Day. Aff., Wallace, Neg., Hackett. Another extem debate on the question, Resolved that the name University of Wooster, should be changed to Wooster College, was affirmed by Harris and denied by Stewart.

Essay class—Revenaugh, Great Britain. Avison—The Evils of Immigration.

The important business of election of officers resulted in the choice of the following men to guide the society through the remainder of this year and the first meetings next fall—Pres., Seelye; Vice Pres., Alexander; 1st Critic, Avison; 2nd Critic, Stewart; R. Sec'y., Jones; C. Sec'y., Bowen; Chaplain, Hackett; Sergeant-at-arms, Behoteguy; Treas., Forman.

THE INDEX

Get ready! The Index Board is about to present to the public, the result of its year's labor. Be ready to receive it and above all, come early. Every Wooster student should possess an Index, the record of the year's events. Time and place of sale will be announced later. Only a limited number has been printed. Again we say, Get Ready!

LAWN PARTY

A week ago last Monday, Lawrence and Lera Avison pleasantly entertained the Sigma Chis and their lady friends at a lawn party. The spacious lawn was lit up by Japanese lanterns and presented a most attractive appearance. Games and strolling were the amusements of the evening and were indulged in to a considerable extent by all. Delectable refreshments added a finishing touch to the pleasure of the evening.

In event of the rain on Thursday afternoon the Seniors held a picnic in the barn of President Palmer. The loft of this agricultural building was decorated with red and black, while the corners were fitly adorned with hay and straw. Refreshments were served throughout the most of the evening, and the fun was prolonged far into the night. The cows and antiquated white horse were more than astonished at the unusual noise and laughter in their residence, but sleep became heavy on their eyelids before the happy members of '09 returned to their homes.

In the next inning with one out Sullivan tripled to centerfield. Lothrop hit to Richardson who threw him out at first and France's throw to the plate beat Sullivan who tried to score. It was one of the fastest double plays seen on the field this year.

Two singles and Rich's wild throw added two more runs in the sixth. Another come in the seventh on two more hits a sacrifice and an error. Snow reached first in the ninth on another slip by Richardson and scored when Blanding knocked a long triple to left. Sullivan ended the winning by striking out.

Wooster had men on bases in several innings. In the third Herbert reached first on a fielder's choice after two were out. He stole second and Jacobs the next batter knocked what should have been a clean single. Olson came in fast made a great dive and got the ball just before it reached the ground. Blaser made a double in the fifth after two were down and was left when Bill Compton fanned. Pretty fielding by Michigan cut off runs in the sixth and seventh, Herbert being caught at third and France at the plate.

THE BLUES

[The following poem by Dr. Grumbine appears in the June number of The Bohemian Magazine:]

Within, a mood of wan despair;
Without, wild anger in the air;
The scritch
Of demon hate
Insatiate
Striking athwart my rattling pane,
Twirling the creaking weather-vane;—
What is't?
Hist,
'Tis the witch!

Alack, ohone!
A cursing moan;
A coistril speech
In curdling screech;
An icy groan,
A finger-bone
Pointing at—Pish!
Ratsbane!
Cat's blood!
Back
From my window-pane,
Ye hellish brood!
Scat,
Ye demon pack!
Take that,
Thwack on thwack!
Aroint, ye witches,
Choke your scritchies!—

Swish,
Zip, trip,
Away they skip!

A SURPRISE

One of the most pleasant affairs in the history of the Preparatory Department was the surprise farewell picnic. The fun began with sack-races and three legged races, followed by an eating contest, then all gathered round the two bonfires to roast "weenies" and marshmallows, and had a very sociable time. Prof. Wenner was made toastmaster and, after a number of witty toasts by the members of the department, he unsuspectingly called on Mr. Beery for a toast, who, instead, with a few well-chosen words, presented him with a bronze salver engraved with the words:
