1. A Ll fuch perfons, who fhall be admitted to the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, ought to know That there is a God; that there is but one everliving and true God, maker of heaven and earth, and Governour of all things; that this onely true God is the God whom we worthip; that this God is but one God, yet three diffinct perfons, the Father, Sonne, and holy Ghoft, all equally God.

That God created man after his own Image, in knowledge, righteoufneffe and true holineffe; that by one man finne entered into the world, and death by fin, and fo death paffed upon all men, for that all have finned; that thereby they are all dead in trefpaffes and fins, and are by nature the Children of wrath, and fo lyable to eternall death, the wages of every fin:

That there is but one Mediator betwixt God and Man, the man Chrift Jefus, who is alfo over all God bleffed for ever, neither is there falvation in any other.

That he was conceived by the holy Ghoft, and born of the Virgin Mary, that he dyed upon the Crofle to fave his people from their finnes, that he rofe againe the third day from the dead, afcended into heaven, fits at

the

(29) the right hand of God, and makes continuall interceffion for us, of whole fulneffe we receive all Grace neceffary to Salvation.

That Christ and his benefits are applyed onely by faith; that faith is the gift of God, and that we have it, not of our felves, but it is wrought in us by the word and spirit of God.

That they who truly repent of their fins do fee them, forrow for them, and turn from them to the Lord; and that except men repent, they shall furely perish.

That a Godly life is confcionably ordered according to the word of God, in holinefie and righteoulneffe, without which no man fhall fee God.

That the Sacraments are feales of the Covenant of Grace in the bloud of Chrift; that the Sacraments of the new Teftament are Baptifme and the Lords Supper; That the outward Elements in the Lords Supper are bread and wine, and doe fignifie the body and bloud of Chrift crucified, which the worthy receiver by faith doth partake of in this Sacrament, which Chrift hath likewife ordained for the remembrance of his death; that whofoever eats and drinkes unworthily, is guilty of the body and bloud of the Lord, and therefore that every one is to examine himfelfe, left he eat and drinke Judgement to himfelfe, not difcerning the Lords body.

That the foules of the faithfull after death doe immediately live with Christin blessednesse; and that the foules

foules of the wicked do immediately goe into hell Torment; that there shall be a refurrection of the bodies, both of the just and unjust at the last day, at which time all shall appear before the judgement seat of Christ, to receive according to what they have done in the body, whether it be good or evill, and that the righteous shall go into life eternall, and the wicked into everlasting punishment

1. E X communication being a shutting out of a person from the Communion of the Church (and therefore the greatest and last Censure of the Church) let it be inflicted with great and mature deliberation, and after all other good means have been affayed.

2. That fuch errors as fubvert the Faith, or any other errors which overthrow the power of Godlinefs, if the party who holds them, fpread them, feeking to draw of thers after him; and fuch fins in practice as caufe the Name and Truth of God to be Blasphemed, and cannot ftand with the power of Godlines; and fuch practices as in their own nature manifestly subvert that Order, Unity & Peace which Christ hath established in his Church; and particularly all those Scandalous fins for which any perfon is to be suspended from the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, obstinately persisted in, these being publiquely known to the just Scandal of the Church, the Sentence of Excommunication may and ought to proceed according to the Directions hereafter following.

3. But the perfons who hold other Errors in Judgement, about points wherein Learned and Godly men poffibly may or do differ, and which fubvert not the Faith, nor are deftructive to Godlinefs, or that be guilty of fuch fins of Infirmity as are commonly found in the Children of God, or being otherwife found in the Faith, and holy in Life (and fo not falling under Genfure by the former Rules) endeavor to keep the Unity of the Spirit in the Bond of Peace; and do yet out of Confcience not come up to the Obfervation of all those Rules which are or fhall be eftablished by Authority for Regulating the outward Worfhip of God, and Government of his Church, the Sentence of Excommunication for these causes shall not be denounced against them.

4. That when the fin becomes publique, and juftly Scandalous, the Offendor shall be dealt withal by the Eldership to bring him to Repentance, and to such a manifestation thereof, as that his Repentance may be publique as the Scandal; but if he remain obstinate, he is at last to be Excommunicated, and in the mean time shall be suspended from the Sacrament of the Lords Supper.

And whereas there be divers and various Judgements touching the power of Excommunication, and the proper fubject thereof, for the clearing of Difficulties, avoiding of Offences, and prefervation of Peace, Let thefe following Directions be observed.

In the great and difficult cafes of Excommunication, whether concerning Doctrine or Conversation, the Claffical Presbytery upon the knowledge thereof may examine the person, confider the nature of the Offence, with the aggravations thereof; and as they shall see just cause, may Discern and Declare, That he is to be excommunicated, which shall be done by the Eldership of that Gongregation whereof he is a Member, with the confent of the Gongregation, in this or the like maner:

1. As there shall be cause, several publique Admonitions shall be given to the Offendor (if he appears) and prayers made for him.

2. When the Offence is fo hainous, that it cryes to Heaven for vengeance, wafteth the confcience, and is generally Scandalous, the Cenfures of the Ghurch may proceed with more expedition.

3. In the Admonitions let the Fa& be charged upon the Offendor, with the clear evidence of the guilt thereof, then let the nature of his fin, the particular aggravations of it, the punifhment and curfes threatned againft it, the danger of Impenitency, efpecially after fuch means ufed, the woful condition of them caft out from the favor of God, and communion of the Saints, the great Mercy of God in Chrift to the penitent, how ready and willing Chrift is to forgive, and the Church to accept him upon this his ferious Repentance: Let thefe or the like particulars be urged upon him out of fome futable places of holy Scriptures.

4. The fame particulars may be mentioned in prayer, wherein the Lord is to be intreated to blefs this Admonition to him, and to affect his heart with the confideration of these things, thereby to bring him unto Repentance.

5. If

(44)

5. If upon the last Admonition and prayer there be no evidence nor fign of his Repentance, let the dreadful Sentence of Excommunication be pronounced, with calling upon the Name of God in these or the like expressions:

Speak this in the 3 d perfon, if the party be abfent,

Whereas thou N. haft been by fufficient proof convinced of (Here mention the fin) and after due Admonition and prayer remaineft obflinate, without any evidence or fign of true Repentance; Therefore in the Name of the Lord Jefus Chrift, and before this Congregation, I pronounce and Declare thee N. excommunicated and fhut out from the communion of the faithful.

Let the Prayer, accompanying the Sentence, be to this effect:

That God who bath appointed this terrible Sentence, for removing of offences, and reducing of obstinate Sinners, would be present with this his Ordinance, to make it effectual to all those holy ends for which he bath appointed it; That the retaining of the Offendors sin, and shutting him out of the Church may fill him with fear and shame, and break his obstinate heart, and be a means to destroy the steph, and to recover him from the power of the Devil, that his Spirit may be saved, that others also may be stricken with fear, and not dare to sin so presumptuously, and that all such corrupt Leven being purged out of the Church (which is the House of God) fesus Christ might delight to dwell in the midst of them.

6. After the Denunciation of this Sentence, the people are to be warned that they hold him to be caft out of the Communion of the Church, and to fhon all Communion with him; Neverthelefs, Excommunication diffolveth not the bonds of Civil or Natural Relations, nor exempteth from the duties belonging to them.

The

The order of proceeding to Abfalution.

TF after Excommunication the figns of Repentance appear in the Excommunicated perfon, fuch as, godly forrow for fin, as having thereby incurred Gods heavy difpleasure, occasioned grief to his Brethren, and justly provoked them to caft him out of their Communion, together with a full purpole of heart to turn from his fin unto God, and to reform what hath been amifs in him : with an humble defire of recovering his peace with God and his people, and to be reftored to the light of Gods countenance, and the Communion of the Church ; Let him be brought before the Congregation, and there alfo make a free contession of his fin, with forrow for it, to call upon God for mercy in Chrift, to leek to be reftored to the Communion of the Church, promiting to God new obedience, and to them more holy and circumfpect walking as becometh the Gofpel; Let him be pronounced, in the name of Chrift, Abfolved and free from the Cenfures of the Church, and declared to haveright to all the Ordinances of Chrift, with praifing of God for his grace, and prayer, that he may be fully accepted to his favor, and hear joy and gladnefs, to this effect :

To praife (iod, who delighteth not in the death of a finner, but that he may repent and live, for blefing the Ordinance of Excommunication, and making it effectual by his Spirit to the recovery of this Offendor; to magnifie the mercy of God through Fefus Christ, in pardoning and receiving to his favor the most grievous Offendors, whenfoever they infeignedly repent and for fake their fins; To pray for affurance of mercy, and for giveness to this Penitent, and so to bless his Ordinance of Abjolution, that he may finde himself loosed thereby; And that the Lord would henceforth so uphold and strengthen bim (4.6) by his Spirit, that being found in the Faith, and holy in all maner of conversation, God may be bonored, the Church edified, and himsfelf saved in the day of the Lord Fesus.

Then shall follow the Sentence of Absolution in these or the like words;

W Hereas thou N. haft for thy fin been fhut out from the Communion of the Faithful, and haft now manifefted thy Repentance, wherein the Church refteth fatisfied, In the name of Jelus Chrift before this Congregation, I pronounce and declare the abfolved from the Sentence of Excommunication, formerly denounced against thee, and do receive thee to the Communion of the Church, and the free use of all the Ordinances of Jelus Chrift, that thou mayest be partaker of all his benefits to thy eternal Salvation.

After this Sentence of Absolution, let the Minister speak to him as to a Brother, exhorting him to Watch and Pray, or comforting him if there be need; Let the Elders imbrace him, and the whole Congregation hold communion with him as one of their own.
