A football game is a slice of life in miniature. There is color and excitement, tension and exhilaration, the sweet taste of victory, the dull ache of defeat. For the spectators there are thrills and vicarious accomplishments under the warm lights. For the coaches there are endless minutes of anxiety and stubborn pride in young men who have learned their tasks well. For the players there are hours and days of unremitting labor, the joy of physical mastery, a moment of truth and much to regret, no matter how well the tasks have been performed.

It is because football is such a microcosm of life that we love it. There is much in it that we can all enjoy; there is much that most of us will never understand. There are tricks of fate and rewards for automatic response. There is satisfaction in its discipline, its chivalry, its power, and its precision. At Otterbein, it is played because it is all of these things: whenever it is perverted into something else, we will cease to play it.

Lynn W. Turner,
