Andrews University will host Adventist Engaged Encounter (AEE) the weekend of March 1–3, 2019. AEE is an enrichment weekend for seriously dating, engaged and recently married couples. It offers insights and tools for couples to develop their relationship and strengthen their commitment to one another.

There are three main aspects to AEE’s programming: fellowship with other recently engaged and newly married couples, teaching by marriage mentors, and personal communication and connection development with one’s partner.

For many, attending an AEE weekend is one of the most significant experiences of their dating, courtship or early marriage. Erin Castelbuono says, “AEE taught us a different way to communicate more efficiently for our marriage. From this weekend, I became more aware of my husband’s emotions and feelings. I would positively and certainly recommend AEE to anyone who is getting married or who is recently married.”
